

Mega Sporting Events & Child Rights:

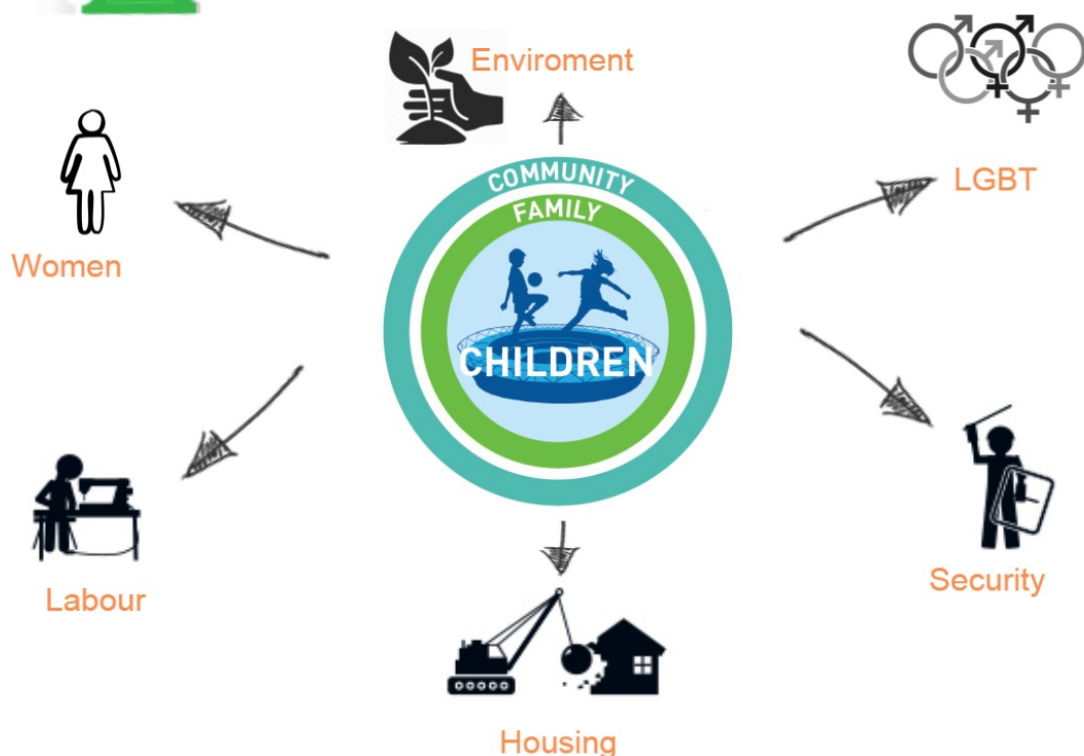

In which ways do children's rights intersect with Mega Sporting Events?

THE RESEARCH

- "bridges" between the different 'sectors' impacted by Mega Sporting Events and child rights perspectives.
- contributes to collective efforts to respect human rights at all stages of the event lifecycle: Bidding, preparation, delivery and legacy.

6 THEMES

CONCLUSION & RECOMMENDATION

Mega Sporting Events involve a range of risks and opportunities regarding children's rights and interests.

A pro-child framework should be embedded within the human rights requirements established for MSE hosting opportunities.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

Commissioned from the Centre for Sport, Physical Education and Activity Research (SPEAR) and the Research Centre for Children, Families and Communities at Canterbury Christ Church University, by: Terre des Hommes supported by the Oak Foundation.